Under the Palms

One of the Best and Most Successful Concerts Ever Given in Cayley

The people of Cayley and vicinity were, on the evening of Wednesday evening, the 15th inst., the recipients of a rare musical treat, when the Choral Society of Cayley rendered the Cantata "Under the Palms," which they have for some time been practising.

The Cayley Choral Society was formed on November 1st, 1910, with the Rev. J. M. Beaton as director and Mr. F. Scragg as organist; and although the class was composed very largely of students making their initial effort, it made such rapid progress that at the end of two months it was decided to launch out in a more pretentious way, and accordingly, the services of Madam Duggan, R.A.M., of Nanton, was engaged as directress, with those of Mrs. Harris, also of the Royal Academy, as organist, the class meeting once each week and practicing the cantata which they have now concluded, and to which on its closing evening the public were invited. The audience had, no doubt, considerable sprinkling of those of whom the immortal bard of Avon said, "They were not easily moved with concord of sweet sounds," yet all readily gave their testimony to one of the best musical entertainments ever given in Cayley. Even the debutants performing their parts in a manner which indicated the musical artist of much larger experience.

The class has been particularly fortunate in securing the services of Mrs. Duggan, who has an international reputation, being a medalist of the Royal Academy of Music and winner of the Contralto Solo at Rhyll National Eisteddfod in 1892, and also at the Chicago World's Fair in 1893. In 1894 she had the distinguished honor of appearing before Her late Majesty Queen Victoria at Osborne House.

The class, with their parts, were composed of the following:

Coming to Cayley

Sixty Thousand settlers to bring $60,000,000 into Alberta this year.

Speaking in rough, round figures I would say 400,000 immigrants and settlers will come into Canada this year; 50 per cent of this number, or 200,000, will come west of which from 120,000 to 160,000 will be American settlers, says J. Bruce Walker, commissioner of immigration. I should say Alberta will get of this great influx about 60,000, and taking as an average $1,000 per head, which is estimated each American settler brings in, either in cash, stock, effects, or all three, it means enriching the province, monetarily alone, to the extent of approximately of $60,000,000.

The Gideons Order 100,000 Bibles for Hotels.

One hundred thousand bibles have been ordered by the Gideons as the members of the Christian Travellers' Association of America style themselves. The order, said to be one of the largest ever issued, forms part of a national plan to place a bible in every hotel bedroom in the country. W. E. Henderson, national secretary of the Gideons, said here to-day he had been promised one fourth of the order for San Francisco and the Pacific Coast. It is planned that the huge shipment shall reach San Francisco in time for the triennial convention of National Sunday School Association, the latter part of June.

On the flyleaf of each bible the following set of suggestions will be pasted:

If lonesome and blue, and friends untrue, read Psalm 23 and 27; Luke 15.

If trade is poor, read Psalm 37: John 15.

Just What We Wanted.

The snowstorm which set in at an early hour on Tuesday morning was a splendid thing for the country. The old snow was all gone in this section, and that which fell on Tuesday had a good chance to soak thoroughly into the ground. The prospects for our farmers never were so bright. Southern Alberta appears to be getting just what it wants this year, and at the time it wants it. The present year promises to be the banner year for the Cayley district farmers.

If a man does well in a small town he soon gets the idea that he could do better in a city.

are not in a very good shape yet.The council of the L. I. Dist.

that the same will be ready for ther particulars will be given in next week's Hustler.Mr. McIlwaine was returning from a visit to Ontario, died at Brandon on his way home.

The funeral took place from the Presbyterian church to the Cayley cemetery on Monday, March 20.
Mr. McIlwaine was a man who was very highly respected by a wide family to mourn his loss. The sympathy of the entire community is with them in their bereavement.A certain young lady in this neighborhood has a novel plan in keeping track of her Sunday school papers. On leaving the school she puts them in a certain young man's pocket. Of course he forgets to give them to her on Sunday evening, and it being necessary for her to study the lesson before the week end, he calls with them about mid-week, when she has time to take care of them. Of course, he doesn't mind the call, and we presume neither does she.Mr. Chas. Gardner is on a business trip to Oregon.The farmers in this district are anxiously awaiting Spring. Everything points to bumper crops, and our farmers are making every preparation to "gather them in."The auction sale of stock belonging to J. C. Lawrence, northwest of Cayley, took place on Wednesday, at McKenzie's station High River, and it was astonishing to note the brisk bidding indulged in by those attending.
It was a cash sale and when the proceeds were summed up about $6,000 was realized from the sale.
L. R. Caspell, Cayley's popular auctioneer, proved his mettle, and established a reputation as a successful wielder of the hammer.No License for ChampionAt the Board of License Commissioners, convened at Lethbridge this week, the following decision was handed out, with regard to an application for a license for Champion: That the application of Johnston and Johnston for a license at Champion be not recommended on account of the householders' application not being satisfactory to the board, several of the names appearing thereon not being the names of bona-fide householders as required by the application.The phenomenal immigration is attributed to the general prosperity and immense advance in railway construction in Canada.
Fully 30 per cent. of these immigrants are skilled workmen and nearly all of them have means upon which to subsist for months after their arrival. It is estimated that fully 150,000 English mechanics, farmers and laborers will leave for the Dominion during the coming season. Some 17,000 will come this month, and in addition about 3,000 immigrants will reach this land of promise via the United States this month.Just Like the Cayley DistrictJohn Lineham of Okotoks returned to the city yesterday, after a few days at his home in that district. Mr. Lineham says that a great many farmers have started work on the land, harrowing and discing preparatory to seeding, which will be general towards the end of the week, if the present fine weather continues. The fall wheat never looked better in the spring since it first started to be grown, and the prospects for a big crop could not be better. Although the old leavers are dead, the roots are strong and healthy, and already the young growth is showing up green. I have every confidence, says Mr. Lineham, that 1911 is going to be a banner year in Southern Alberta, both for the farmers and the ranchers.
—Alberta.Mary's Little LambsThe popularity of the plan to invite all the Marys in the empire to contribute to a fund for a coronation gift to Queen Mary will be confirmed by the following: In England seven Marys in one family have already sent a penny each toward the Queen Mary coronation gift, accompanied by a letter. Their names are thus set out:Mary, aged 77, widow of a Crimean veteran.
Mary, her daughter.
Mary, daughter-in-law.
Mary Ann, daughter-in-law.
Mary, granddaughter.
Mary Elsie, granddaughter.
Mary Bertha, granddaughter.
The Marys are a specially privileged class in this year of grace, though nobody can tell how many there may be in the empire—except that it is quite safe to say that the bearers of no other name can exceed the Marys in number.Reid HillFarmers have started to work on their land.Geo. Smith is still nursing a lame shoulder.You are right, Mr. Editor, Reid Hill is alive, came through the winter all O.K.R. McPherson has returned to Reid Hill, after spending a few days in Cayley.John Base bought a team the other day from Mr. Dole. The price, we understand, was five hundred and fifty dollars.We wonder why the Hustler does not express itself on Reciprocity? We would like to have your opinion, Mr. Hustler.A number of Cecil Smith's la-di friends called on him last Saturday and had dinner with him.
They say Cecil is a fine cook.We understand T. Hines intends building a blacksmith shop opposite the Reid Hill store.
That will fill a long-felt want.Rude Myers sold his horse and harness to Cecil Smith last week.
We feel sorry for Rude, but still the walking will soon be good.Last year's spring wheat has started to grow again. What would you call it, spring or winter wheat? Will some experienced farmer tell us?Everybody is looking for a bumper crop this year. The land is in fine shape now. All we need is our usual May rains and reciprocity to make everybody happy.Odd I Isn't It?A match has a head, but no face;

Odd I Isn't it?Hail Insurance.The act respecting hail insurance has been amended by the Alberta Provincial Legislature by limiting the amount that may be received for loss by hail at $4 per acre. Previously indemnity was $4, $6 and $8, with premiums at 20c, 30c and 40c per acre. Now the premium is 25c, and no contract shall be issued or binding where application for insurance is not made and received by the provincial treasurer on or before the first day of July of each year before hail has fallen on the crops insured or any part thereof.The winter took on a decided spring break-up appearance during the past week, and our special weather man says that spring will be here before we know where we are. Certain, that last week's weather almost spells summer.
Our weather man also predicts that there'll be no rain in May, but an abundance in June.Some men do a lot of unnecessary work in order to save doing a little work that is necessary.
